BID FOR MND

Motor neurone disease is an incurable, poorly-understood terminal illness that destroys motor neurons in the brain. It causes the entire body to deteriorate, leading to paralysis, cessation of basic bodily functions such as breathing, and eventually death. The average life expectancy from diagnosis is just 27 months. Every day, two Australians are diagnosed with MND, and another two die from it.

This very special auction is a rare chance to bid on more than 90 unique food and lifestyle items to raise money for MND Victoria, while getting organised for end-of-year celebrations and gifting. Curated by MasterChef Australia judge, Sofia Levin, who lost her father to motor neurone disease in July this year, the auction runs online from 5pm September 13, to 5pm September 23, 2024.

The retail value of items start at $55 and stretch to beyond priceless. Highlights include top chefs cooking in homes, all-inclusive foodie weekends away, masterclasses and unbookable restaurant tables; as well as homewares, kitchenware, Australian art, jewellery and wellness items.

There is no cure for motor neurone disease, and while the hunt for one is loudly publicised, immediate care is severely underfunded. Every cent from this auction will go to MND Victoria, which provides essential care, support and resources to MND patients, helping them live as well as possible for as long as possible.

"For people who are going to spend money at restaurants anyway, or who know they are going to buy presents for their loved ones and themselves in the next six months, I urge them to do it through this online auction, because then that money can go towards helping people whose lives have been turned upside-down by motor neurone disease." - Sofia Levin

HOW YOUR BID HELPS MND PATIENTS

$75 provides a bed cradle to ensure a restful sleep.

$90 could run a support group for those impacted by MND.

$179 provides a nebuliser to assist with crucial respiratory functioning.

$450 supplies an accessibility ramp for home & encourages community participation.

$950 provides a manual wheelchair to offer freedom and mobility.

$1,600 provides a shower commode that offers dignity & ensures safety.

$2,200 funds an electric riser chair, a crucial source of everyday comfort.

$5,000 provides a hoist & sling to safely move someone with MND.

How to Bid

MW Wine Auctions is forfeiting its usual subscription fee and buyer's premium for this cause.

You must register to bid. For a free lifetime subscription, enter your details via:
mwwines.com.au/mnd-vic-free-mw-wines-auction-subscription

Once the short form is filled out, it could take up to 1 business day to activate your subscription. Please look for the confirmation email before attempting to log in and bid.

To bid, visit mwwineauctions.com and login. Access the auction by clicking the "Search Auction" button. We recommend downloading and reading the full PDF catalogue in conjunction with the online auction for more information about the available lots.

When placing a bid, please be aware that the 15% buyer's premium added on top of the final figure will also be donated to MND Victoria. The reserve price of all lots has been adjusted down to account for this 15%, but keep in mind that your maximum bid will have 15% added to it should you win. Bids are not transferable for cash.

Tips for First Timers

- If you are interested in more than one lot, simply click the "Watch" button on each and then manage them by clicking the "Watch & Bid" tab. You can also bid on individual lots straight from the "Auction Search" screen.
- If you are outbid in the last few minutes of the auction, your lot will remain open for 5 minutes past the close time to give you a chance to update your bid. To see if this has happened, refresh your "Bid Register" when the auction closes at 5pm on 23 September 2024 to check which lots are still active. Lots that are highlighted are still active. The 5-minute extension will reset each time there is a new bid from an existing bidder on that lot. The lot will remain open for further bidding until 5 minutes pass without a new bid.

To better understand the MW Wines Auction system, take the "Help" tour:

If You Win

If you are successful in winning a lot, you will be contacted by an MND Vic auction representative, who will provide payment information. All funds go directly to MND Victoria. Once payment has been confirmed, you will be connected with the relevant provider of the auction item to claim your lot.
